

Limited Registration

Application

Use this form if you are an employer (applicant) who has made an offer of a teaching position and wish to apply for Limited Registration on behalf of a teacher.

Limited Registration is a category of registration that allows employers/educational institutions the ability to employ people with appropriate qualifications, skills and/or expertise to fill specific teaching roles when required.

To be eligible for the grant of Limited Registration a person must:

- have an offer of a teaching position in an educational institution;
- have the required qualification(s), skills and/or expertise relevant to the teaching position;
- have the English language skills suitable for registration as a teacher; and
- be a fit and proper person to be registered.

One Limited Registration application is used per employer.

For the purpose of an Application for Limited Registration:

- the employer/educational institution is considered to be the applicant,
- the nominated teacher is considered to be the teacher, and
- the delegate is considered to be the authorised person acting on behalf of the employer.

Applicant: the employer who has offered the person a teaching position.

Educational institution: a place as defined under section 3 of the Teacher Registration Act 2012 (Act), such as a school, kindergarten or education and care service.

Teacher: the person who has been offered the teaching position in the educational institution (i.e. the teacher).

If a person is required to teach immediately, a Pre-application-Limited Registration Notice \(Notice\) may be submitted by the applicant. The Notice may be submitted prior to, or together with, the Limited Registration application. Submission of a Notice allows a teacher to commence teaching immediately upon the receipt of written acknowledgement by the TRBWA.

If the Notice is submitted prior to submission of the application, the employer must submit the application (including payment of the appropriate fee) within 14 days. Failure to do so will result in the teacher no longer being eligible to teach and may represent a contravention of the Act.

If a Notice is not submitted, a person will not be legally authorised to teach until Limited Registration has been granted.

An employer may also wish to verify the person has a valid Working with Children Check.

If a complete application including payment is not received within 14 days, there is no entitlement for the teacher to continue to teach and any teaching already carried out may be subject to a penalty of $5,000 (first offence) or $10,000 (second or subsequent offences) for both the teacher and the employer.

If a Notice is submitted by an educational institution, the grant of Limited Registration for that educational institution will be backdated to the date the Notice was acknowledged. The teacher is only entitled to teach from the date of acknowledgement of the Notice by the TRBWA.

Employer related requirements

It is important to note that there may be employer/educational institution-related requirements which a person may need to meet before they are able to teach (e.g. screening number, qualifications).

Employer-related requirements are separate from the TRBWA registration process and are beyond the scope of the TRBWA.

Section 1: Teacher to complete

Section 1 must be completed by the nominated teacher and reviewed by the employer.

The teacher must complete all parts of Section 1, including:

National criminal history check for a teacher

As part of the assessment by the TRBWA as to whether you are a fit and proper person, consideration is given to any criminal history you may have, pursuant to section 24(c) of the Act.

When you apply for teacher registration, you must provide consent to the TRBWA to obtain a national criminal history check. You provide consent by completing the attached 'Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form'.

Proof of identity requirements

You are required to provide three (3) identity documents with your consent form. The combined identity documents must contain your full name, date of birth and a photograph of you. If the identity documents do not include a photograph, you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in the attached 'Authorised witnesses for TRBWA registration processes guide'.

Please refer to the 'Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form' for a list of identity documents required for the national criminal history check.

Change of name

If you provide identity documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your three (3) identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Please note, any other name variations may require evidence to support your change of name.

Special provisions for proof of identity

There may be circumstances in which a person may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements. If you are unable to meet the requirements as listed in the 'Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form', please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au and the TRBWA will assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method for you to confirm your identity.

Verification of your identity

As part of the process to undertake a national criminal history check, the TRBWA is also required to verify your identity. This involves a visual comparison between you and the original photographic identity document submitted with your application.

Verification must be completed by an authorised third party on behalf of the TRBWA.

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is an occupation or person prescribed under Schedule 1 of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2023. A list of authorised third parties is available in attached the 'Authorised witness for TRBWA registration processes guide'.

To verify your identity, an authorised third party must:

1. sight all identity documents (including the photographic identity document) submitted with your application form;
2. make a face-to-face visual comparison between you and the original photo identity document; and
3. verify that you are the person represented in the application by completing sections 3 and 4 of the attached 'Verification of Identity by an Authorised Third Party Declaration'.

You must present all the original identity documents submitted as part of your application to the authorised third party for comparison. If they are unable to establish that you are the person represented in the application, additional photo identification may be requested.

If you are unable to access an authorised third party to complete the identity verification process, please email info@trb.education.wa.gov.au for further advice.

Please note, your application will not be finalised until this process has been completed.
