Qualification(s) to be assessed

The TRBWA will consider the following when assessing your qualification(s):

- The academic level of the qualification(s);
- The full-time duration of the course(s);
- The amount of teaching practice undertaken within the program(s); and
- The amount and nature of professional teacher education content within the program(s).

To enable this assessment, please enclose the following documents:

- parchment(s)/certificate(s);
- evidence of all units/subjects completed within qualification(s) (i.e. academic record, academic transcripts, Diploma supplement); and
- evidence of teaching practice completed within the program(s).

If your academic records or documents are in a language other than English, you must provide copies of the documents both in the original language and the English translation. Please note that translations must be prepared and certified as correct by a Certified Translator, National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). Web site link (http://www.naati.com.au/).

The following may also be submitted:

- If you have had your teaching qualification assessed by the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL) for migration purposes, please upload a copy of the AISTL assessment advice.
- Any other documentation that may be relevant (e.g. Teaching credential, Qualified Teacher Status).

The TRBWA must be satisfied that the evidence submitted with your request demonstrates that the qualification requirements have been met. You are therefore encouraged to provide as much relevant evidence to support your request.

At any stage of the assessment of your request, the TRBWA may request additional evidence/information.

Please provide details of any program(s) of study you are currently undertaking and any qualification that you have been awarded. If your qualifications are held in different names, you may be asked to provide evidence of a name change.

English language requirement

In order to be granted registration, the Board must be satisfied that a person has sufficient English language ability to teach in a WA educational venue. Please select (☑) one of the options listed below and provide the required supporting evidence.

□Option 1 (ITE Program)	I have completed, in English, all of the components of an accredited initial teacher education program or a teaching qualification (that meets the qualification requirements) in one of the following countries: Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, Canada and the Republic of Ireland. Verification required: A review of your qualification(s) will verify this selection.
□Option 2 (IELTS)	I have completed the academic module of the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) test within the last 2 years resulting in an average of at least level 7.5 across the four components of listening, speaking, reading and writing and no score under level 7 and a score of at least 8 in both speaking and listening. Evidence required: Please attach a copy of your Academic IELTS assessment that is less than 2 years old. More information about the IELTS test is available from http://www.ielts.org .
☐ Option 3 (Request for Exceptional Circumstances English Language)	I request consideration of exceptional circumstances with respect to the English language requirements for registration as a teacher. The exceptional circumstances provision is intended applicants with such a high level of English language proficiency that it would be unreasonable and unnecessary to require them to complete a formal English proficiency test. This option is aimed primarily at native or near-native users of the English language, born and/or raised in a country where English is the first language, and who speak/use English as their first language on a daily basis. The exceptional circumstances provision is generally intended to address circumstances where a native or near-native English language user has not completed their teacher education in one of the prescribed English-speaking countries. For further information on the TRBWA approach with respect to exceptional circumstances, please refer to the TRBWA English Language Policy (for Full, Provisional or Non-Practising Registration). Please provide information in support of your request on the following page.

Request for Exceptional circumstances English language

Information/comment in support of your request lease provide a statement regarding your English language proficiency and any relevant background iformation you would like the Board to consider. This will assist the Board in determining whether or not xceptional circumstances exist in your case.

Please attach evidence/information that is relevant to your English language proficiency. This may include, but is not limited to:

- information relating to an applicant's educational and employment history in an English-speaking environment;
- references commenting on an applicant's English language proficiency; and
- any other documents and evidence that may be relevant to your English language proficiency
- an IELTS English language assessment or other English language test results.

Fit and proper questions

dete befo TRB	Teacher Registration Act 2012 (Act) requires the TRBWA to have regard to certain matters to ermine whether you are a fit and proper person to be registered. Read the questions below carefully pre responding. It is an offence under the Act to provide false and misleading information to the WA in order to gain registration. For more information, please refer to the Fit and Proper Policy. You required to respond to the following questions (2).	Yes	No
1.	Have you ever had registration, licensing, classification or other authority as a teacher suspended, cancelled or withdrawn in Australia or any other country for disciplinary reasons?
2.	Are you subject to any conditions in practising the profession of teaching in Australia or any other country?
3.	Have you ever been refused registration, licensing or classification as a teacher in Australia or any other country?
4.	Have you ever been, or are you currently, the subject of disciplinary action in response to allegations concerning incompetence as a teacher, misconduct as a teacher, or fitness to be a teacher, including preliminary investigation, either informal or formal in Australia or any other country?
5.	Do you have a serious medical condition, or mental or physical impairment, that adversely affects, or is likely to affect, your ability to practise as a teacher? If you have answered 'Yes' to this question, the TRBWA needs to make a determination about the extent to which your ability to practise as a teacher is, or is likely to be, adversely affected. For further information, please refer to the Fit and Proper Policy . Please complete and enclose the Medical Conditions and

If you have answered yes to any of these questions, you must provide full details in a sealed envelope marked 'Private and Confidential' and posted to:

Director, Fit and Proper Assessment Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia PO Box 3019 EAST PERTH WA 6892

This may include:

- responses to additional questions if you answered 'yes' to question 5;
- a detailed submission from you as to how the events arose, what allegations were made, any findings against you, and what you have done since;
- a Statement of Material Facts if appropriate;
- character references (particularly where the referee knows about the events leading to this situation);
- documentation showing an outcome of the matter.

Please provide sufficient information to assist the Board with their assessment of whether you are a fit and proper person to be registered.

National criminal history checks

As part of the assessment by the TRBWA as to whether you are a fit and proper person, consideration is given to any criminal history you may have pursuant to section 24(c) of the Act.

You are required to consent to the TRBWA completing a national criminal history check. Consent is provided by completing a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form, which can be found at the end of this application form and on the TRBWA website (trb.wa.gov.au).

Proof of identity requirements

You are required to provide four identity documents with your consent for a national criminal history check. The combined identity documents must contain your full name, date of birth and a photograph. If your identity documents do not include a photograph, you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in the 'Authorised Third Parties for the Verification of Identity' information sheet which can be found at the end of this form. Please refer to the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form for a list of documents required for the national criminal history check.

Change of name

If you provide identity documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your four identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Please note, any other name variations may require evidence to support the change of name.

Special provisions for proof of identity

There may be circumstances in which an applicant may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements. If you are unable to provide the minimum identity requirements, as listed on the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form (found at the end of this application form), please contact the TRBWA who will assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method. Please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au.

Verification of identity

As part of the process to undertake a national criminal history check, the TRBWA is also required to verify the identity of the person making the application. This involves the comparison of the original photographic identification document provided as part of the application process with a visual comparison of the applicant.

Verification will be completed by an authorised third party on behalf of the TRBWA.

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is an occupation or person as listed in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2018. A list of authorised third parties is available in the 'Authorised Third Parties for the Verification of Identity' information sheet which can be found at the end of this form.

To verify a person's identity, the authorised third party must:

- 1. sight all identity documents (including the photographic identification document) used as part of this online form
- 2. make a face-to-face visual comparison between the person and the original photo identification document; and
- 3. verify through a declaration as to the person's identity.

The authorised third party is to be presented with all the original identity documents submitted as part of the application for comparison. If they are unable to establish that you are the person represented in the application, additional photo identification may be requested.

The 'Verification of identity by an authorised third party' declaration is found at the end of this form.

If you are unable to access an authorised third party to complete the identity verification process, please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au for further advice.

Please note, your application will not be finalised until this process has been completed.

Overseas criminal history checks (from a country other than Australia)

You are required to provide an overseas criminal history check from every country you have resided in for a cumulative¹ period of 12 months or more, from 18 years of age, during the 10 years prior to making this application for teacher registration.

Have you resided in any country other than Australia for a cumulative ¹ period of 12 months or more,	Yes	No from 18 years of age, during the 10 years prior to making this application? ($oxine{oxtime}$)
If you have answered 'No', please proceed to the Registration Obligations.
If you have answered 'Yes', please proceed with the requirements below for obtaining an overseas criminal history.

Apply for an overseas criminal history check

While the Board will have regard to any evidence provided with respect to your overseas criminal history, in order to provide reasonable assurance concerning the validity of the check, you must obtain a check from the Board's preferred provider, AIS International.

You can apply for your overseas criminal history check via the AIS International Applicant Portal. You can complete, pay and submit your application via the portal. Once submitted, you can check on the progress of your overseas criminal history check by logging into your application via the portal.

You will receive an email from AIS International when the results of your overseas criminal history check are available. The results of your overseas criminal history check will also be provided directly to the TRBWA.

Please note, you will need to apply separately for your overseas criminal history check from AIS International.

If you have any questions regarding your overseas criminal history check application, please contact AIS International on:

Telephone: 1300 300 007 Email: info@aisintl.com.au Website: www.aisintl.com.au

If AIS International does not conduct an overseas criminal history check for the country you resided in, a statutory declaration may be accepted. Please contact us to request a statutory declaration.

Please do not provide your own statutory declaration or obtain one from Australia Post.

Please note, your application can be submitted without an overseas criminal history check. However, the Board generally considers an overseas criminal history check to determine whether you are a fit and proper person to be registered. Only a person(s) deemed to be fit and proper will be granted registration as a teacher.

Example - If you are not currently registered, and you spent 6 months in the UK in 2018 and another 6 months in 2020, the total time spent in the UK would be 12 months within the past 10 years. You would, therefore, be required to provide an overseas criminal history check from the UK.

¹ Cumulative – the total time spent in each individual country in the 10 years prior to making this application.

Overseas criminal history checks table

In the table below, please list every country other than Australia you have resided in for a cumulative period of 12 months or more, from 18 years of age, during your current period of registration. For every country, please identify whether you:

- 1) have applied for an overseas criminal history check from AIS International
- 2) have not yet applied for an overseas criminal history check for this country
- 3) will submit a statutory declaration to the TRBWA, as an overseas criminal history check is not available from AIS International for that country

	1)	2)	3)
Country	I have applied for an overseas criminal history check for this country from AIS International and include the date applied below. A copy of this overseas criminal history check will be provided directly to the TRBWA by AIS International.	I have not yet applied for an overseas criminal history check for this country.	I have checked the list via the AIS International Applicant Portal and an overseas criminal history check is not available for this country. *

^{*}If AIS International does not conduct an overseas criminal history check for the country you resided in, the TRBWA may accept a statutory declaration. Please contact the TRBWA to request a statutory declaration.

Please do not provide your own statutory declaration or obtain one from Australia Post.

Example - If you are not currently registered, and you spent 6 months in the UK in 2018 and another 6 months in 2020, the total time spent in the UK would be 12 months within the past 10 years. You would, therefore, be required to provide an overseas criminal history check from the UK.

¹ Cumulative – the total time spent in each individual country in the 10 years prior to making this application.

Registration Obligations

Registration as a teacher carries with it a number of obligations. I understand it is a requirement for me to:

- maintain my teacher registration which includes the requirement to pay an annual fee by 31 March each year
- provide notice to the Board if I have a change of name, postal or email address within 30 days of these changes occurring (noting that failure to comply with this requirement may result in a penalty fine to the maximum of $1,000).
- provide written consent to the TRBWA, upon request, to obtain a criminal history check
- comply with any conditions placed on my registration
- continue to be a fit and proper person to be registered
- provide written notice to the TRBWA, under sections 38, 39 and 40 of the Teacher Registration Act 2012 (Act):
 - o of any civil proceedings which result in orders to pay damages or compensation (within 30 days)
 - o if I am convicted of an offence which includes a statutory penalty of imprisonment (within 30 days)
 - o about any loss of my qualifications (within 30 days)

If you provide consent, please tick (☑) the following:

o if I receive a working with children interim negative notice or negative notice (within 14 days) noting that I may commit an offence if I fail to notify the TRBWA within the time specified which could result in a penalty fine to the maximum of $5,000.

Further information about your obligations as a registered teacher can be found on the TRBWA website.

TRBWA

Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia

Information about this form

Terms used in this form

Nationally coordinated criminal history check

Describes both: the checking process undertaken by the ACIC and police, and the result received by the accredited body. Commonly known as a 'police check'.

You/the applicant

Individual seeking a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

Accredited body

Organisation accredited with the ACIC and responsible for submitting your nationally coordinated criminal history

check

Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC)

Australian Government agency responsible for facilitating access to nationally coordinated criminal history checks.

Legal entity customer

Organisation the accredited body may use to collect your application, including your informed consent. This may be your employer, benefits provider or issuing body.

Third party

Organisation the accredited body is required by law to disclose your personal information and police information to.

Personal information

Information about you, including any information contained in your identity documents.

Police information

Information released as part of a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

Who completes this form?

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer pre-populates this form with information in these sections: How to submit this form, Contact details and question D1.

Applicant

You are required to provide your personal details and informed consent to complete this form. You must also provide your identity documents, as detailed in Documents required. If you are less than 18 years of age, this form must be completed by your parent or legal guardian. You are completing this form to obtain a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

What is a nationally coordinated criminal history check?

A nationally coordinated criminal history check is conducted with your informed consent to determine your suitability for employment, a position of trust or as required by legislation. A nationally coordinated criminal history check contains your personal information, and any relevant police information about you, according to the purpose of your nationally coordinated criminal history check.

Privacy notice

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian police agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the applicant's identity documentation:

- to disclose police information relating to you, to the accredited body named in question D1.
- to update records held about you
- for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer uses the personal information collected in this application to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check and to assure itself of your identity.

The accredited body may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party. If applicable, third parties are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information about relevant legislation from the accredited body.

The accredited body or its legal entity customer must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted offshore transfer arrangement. If this applies, the legal name and location of the overseas entity are listed in question D1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information from the accredited body listed in D1.

You can contact the accredited body for more information on how they handle your personal information using the contact details at the end of this section.

How is my national coordinated criminal history check result determined?

Police information is disclosed in accordance with applicable spent conviction legislation and information release policies of the Australian Government and state and territory governments.

Section A - Personal information

A1. Please read this before answering the following questions.

You must disclose all names you have been known by throughout your life, including your primary name, name before marriage (maiden name), and other previous names and/or alias names.

All names that you submit as part of your nationally coordinated criminal history check, will appear on the check result. If you are concerned about the disclosure of previous name, please contact the accredited body.

With each additional name you provide, you must include your family name, first given names and other given names (if applicable).

Example:

When Lucianne was born, she was given the first name Lucianne, second given name Jane and surname of Jones. When she was married, she changed her surname to Smith. Lucianne commonly uses the name Lucy when introducing herself in the community.

As such, Lucianne has four known names—her current name, maiden name, the alias name she used before she got married and the alias name she uses now. Lucianne needs to provide all four names when completing this form, as follows:

Current name: Smith, Lucianne Jane Maiden name: Jones, Lucianne Jane

Verification of identity by an authorised third party

This form is for applicants for teacher registration to have an authorised third party verify their identity on behalf of the TRBWA.

All applicants for teacher registration in Western Australia are required to provide consent for a national criminal record check. In order to meet the requirements for a national criminal record check, an applicant for teacher registration in Western Australia must have their identity verified by an authorised third party.

Who is an authorised third party?

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is able to verify the identity of an applicant for teacher registration on behalf of the TRBWA.

An authorised third party is an occupation or person as listed in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2018.

How to complete this form

- 1. Print this form.
- 2. Present all the original identity documents, (including the photo identity document) as listed in Section 2 below, to an authorised third party to undertake an identity verification.
- 3. The authorised third party must:
 - a. sight all identity documents;
 - b. make a face-to-face visual comparison between the applicant and the photo identification document, and
 - c. complete sections 3 and 4.
- 4. Ensure all sections of this form are complete.
- 5. Include a copy of this form with your application for registration.

Identification photo

If your identity documents do not include a photograph you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed on the ('Authorised Third Parties for the Verification of Identity' information sheet).

The authorised third party must sight a recent passport-style photograph of yourself and clearly print the following information on the back of that photograph:

- 1. "This is a true image of (full name of the applicant)";
- 2. their name and position or role e.g. Justice of Peace;
- signature; and
- 4. date of signature.

Upload a copy of both sides of the certified photograph to your application for registration within the Identification photo section.

List of 'Authorised Witnesses' for TRBWA registration processes - Mutual Recognition or Third Party Verification

Please find below a list of occupations and persons authorised to:

- 1. witness the statutory declaration as part of the Mutual Recognition Notice; or
- 2. verify the identity of an applicant for teacher registration with the TRBWA.

Please note, for the purposes of the Mutual Recognition Notice, the witnessing of the Statutory Declaration must be done in person and not remotely.

Verification of identity may be undertaken outside Australia, if it is undertaken by a person on the following list who holds an official, administrative connection to Australia, except for a notary public (however described). For example, a doctor who is registered to practise medicine in Australia may verify the identity of an applicant for the purposes of teacher registration when they are overseas. A doctor who is registered to practise medicine in a country other than Australia, however, may not.
