Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia requirement

Your application involves an assessment as to whether you meet the requirements of the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage.

For a definition of 'teaching' as defined by the Teacher Registration Act 2012, please refer to the 'Who needs to be registered in WA?' section of the TRBWA website.

Please tick (☑) the following:

☐ I have met the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage

If you have not met the professional standards at the proficient career stage, you will not be eligible for the grant of Full Registration. You may, however, be eligible for the renewal of Provisional Registration if sufficient reasons exist. Please contact the TRBWA for advice.

Meeting the standards is generally based on an assessment of evidence at the school/workplace level and is verified by a declaration from an appropriate person. The declaration must be against a range of substantive evidence and must demonstrate that all of the Professional Standards have been met.

Where it has not been possible to obtain a declaration from an appropriate person, evidence may be directly submitted to the TRBWA for assessment. Circumstances where a direct submission of evidence may be accepted include, but are not limited to, casual/relief/contract teachers who teach at many schools for only limited days or have prolonged periods of non-teaching between contracts/relief days. For more information on this option, please refer to Information for Applicants – Direct Submission of Evidence found on the TRBWA website or contact the TRBWA for advice.

For all applications please note, the TRBWA may require further evidence or verification where necessary, prior to making a decision on the application.

Please indicate (☑) below the method on which your application is based.

☐ I have provided an Appropriate Person Declaration

- I have collected and retained evidence that demonstrates how I meet all the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage; and
- I have been able to demonstrate that I meet all the Professional Standards at the Proficient Career Stage to the satisfaction of an appropriate person.

Evidence required: Please ensure that the declaration from an appropriate person (on the following pages) has been completed.

☐ Direct Submission of Evidence

- I have not been able to obtain a declaration from an appropriate person*.
- I have compiled evidence using the approved cover sheet which demonstrates that I clearly meet all the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage.

Evidence required: A submission of evidence which is clearly presented in a navigable format and logical sequence, compiled to demonstrate that all Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage have been met supported by the approved TRBWA Cover Sheet - Direct Submission of Evidence. The cover sheet can be found on the 'Forms' page of the TRBWA website.

An Appropriate Person is:

In a school, an applicant's Principal or a person delegated by the Principal.

In an educational institution other than a school, this is the person who has day-to-day management responsibility (e.g. in an education and care service, the nominated supervisor) or their delegate.

Persons delegated responsibility as the appropriate person to determine whether an applicant meets the standards would ideally hold an educational leadership role and may include a Deputy Principal, head of department/learning area, experienced/senior teacher, mentor, supervisor or line manager.

An appropriate person:

- must hold or have held Full Registration as a teacher in Australia or New Zealand within the previous five years; and
- must be in a reasonable position to assess an applicant against the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia.

Generally, it is expected that the appropriate person will be from the applicant's current educational institution with sufficient knowledge of the applicant's professional practice as a teacher.

There may be situations, however, where an appropriate person feels unable to make a declaration about whether a teacher meets the Professional Standards, such as a staff member being new to a school or working reduced teaching hours across educational institutions. In any of these or similar situations, it may be acceptable for the appropriate person to seek advice/report from the teacher's previous/other educational institution(s).

In some situations, including for example, where there are no teachers within an applicant's educational institution who have held Full Registration during the previous five years, it may be acceptable that the appropriate person is not employed at the same educational institution as the applicant.

It may be acceptable, where a teacher applying for Full Registration is not currently working in an educational institution, for the declaration to be made by an appropriate person from the applicant's previous educational institution.

For more information, please read the Professional Standards Policy, Professional Standards for Teachers in WA and the Guide to Evidencing the Professional Standards at the Proficient Career Stage on the TRBWA website.

Appropriate person’s declaration as to whether the applicant has met the Professional Standards at the Proficient Career Stage

I declare that (one of the following is relevant to my declaration):

- I. I am the Principal or have been delegated* authority by the Principal at the applicant’s school; or
- II. I am the Principal or have been delegated* by the Principal at the applicant’s previous school; or
- III. I am the person with day-to-day management responsibility or have been delegated* by the person with day-to-day management responsibility at an educational institution other than a school.

and

- I hold Full Registration as a teacher in Australia or New Zealand (or have held Full Registration in the previous 5 years).

and

- I am in a reasonable position to assess the applicant against the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage.

and

- I confirm the applicant has demonstrated they meet all the Professional Standards at the Proficient Career Stage. I have provided a summary below of reasons to support this claim.

Please provide a summary that details the reasons why you consider that the applicant meets the Professional Standards for Teachers in Western Australia at the Proficient Career Stage.

Sources of evidence may include, but are not limited to:

- the appropriate person’s first-hand experience of the teacher’s professional practice through direct observation and ongoing engagement
- a recommendation or report from another member of staff who is in a position to make an assessment of the teacher’s performance against the Professional Standards
- a teacher’s participation and performance in an employer graduate teacher induction program
- ongoing standards-based performance management and development processes
- the assessment of a portfolio of evidence compiled by the teacher.

National criminal history checks

As part of the assessment by the TRBWA as to whether you are a fit and proper person, consideration is given to any criminal history you may have, pursuant to section 24(c) of the Act.

You must provide consent to the TRBWA to obtain a national criminal history check when you apply to change your registration category. You can provide consent by completing the attached Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form.

Proof of identity requirements

You will need to provide three identity documents with your consent for a national criminal history check. The combined identity documents must contain your full name, date of birth and a photograph of you. If your identity documents do not include a photograph, you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in the attached Authorised witnesses for TRBWA registration processes guide. Please refer to the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form for a list of identity documents required for the national criminal history check.

If you provide identity documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your three identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Please note, any other name variations may require evidence to support the change of name.

Special provisions for proof of identity

There may be circumstances in which a person may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements. If you are unable to meet the requirements listed in the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check Application and Informed Consent Form, please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au and we will assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method for you to confirm your identity.

Verification of identity

As part of the process to undertake a national criminal history check, the TRBWA is also required to verify your identity. This involves a visual comparison between you and the original photographic identity document submitted with your application.

Verification must be completed by an authorised third party on behalf of the TRBWA.

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is an occupation or person listed in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2023. A list of authorised third parties is available in the Authorised witnesses for TRBWA registration processes guide.

To verify your identity, an authorised third party must:

1. sight all identity documents (including the photographic identity document) submitted with your application form;
2. make a face-to-face visual comparison between you and your original photo identity document; and
3. verify that you are the person represented in the application by completing sections 3 and 4 of the attached Verification of identity by an authorised third party declaration.

You must present all the original identity documents submitted as part of your application to the authorised third party for comparison. If they are unable to establish that you are the person represented in the application, additional photo identification may be requested.

If you are unable to access an authorised third party to complete the identity verification process, please email info@trb.education.wa.edu.au for further advice.

Please note your application will not be finalised until this process has been completed.

Overseas criminal history checks (from a country other than Australia)

You are required to provide an overseas criminal history check from every country you have resided in for a cumulative¹ period of 12 months or more, from 18 years of age, during your current period of registration, where you have not previously provided this information to the Board.

Have you resided in any country other than Australia for a cumulative ¹ period of 12 months or more, from 18 years of age, during your current period of registration?	Yes	No
If you have answered 'No', please proceed to the Registration Obligations section.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
If you have answered 'Yes', please proceed with the requirements below for obtaining an overseas criminal history check.

Apply for an overseas criminal history check

While the Board will have regard to any evidence you provide with respect to your overseas criminal history, in order to provide reasonable assurance concerning the validity of your overseas criminal history check, you must obtain your check from AIS International.

AIS International is the preferred provider of overseas criminal history checks for the TRBWA.

You will need to apply for your overseas criminal history check through AIS International. You can complete, pay and submit your application via the AIS International Applicant Portal.

Once submitted, you can check on the progress of your overseas criminal history check, by logging into your application via the portal.

You will receive an email notification from AIS International when the results of your overseas criminal history check are available. The results of your overseas criminal history check will also be provided directly to the TRBWA.

If you have any questions regarding your overseas criminal history check application, please contact AIS International on:

You must provide consent for a national criminal history check when you apply for teacher registration in Western Australia. To meet the requirements for a national criminal history check, an authorised third party must verify your identity.

Who is an authorised third party?

For the purposes of teacher registration, an authorised third party is an occupation or person listed in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 2023.

How to complete this form

1. Print this form.
2. Present all your original identity documents, (including the photographic identity document) as listed in Section 2 below, to an authorised third party to undertake an identity verification.
3. The authorised third party must:
 - a. sight all identity documents;
 - b. make a face-to-face visual comparison between you and the photographic identity document, and
 - c. complete sections 3 and 4.
4. Ensure all sections of this form are complete.

If your identity documents do not include a photograph, you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in the Authorised witnesses for TRBWA registration processes guide.

The authorised third party must sight a recent passport-style photograph of you and clearly print the following information on the back of that photograph:

Authorised witnesses for TRBWA registration processes

The occupations and persons listed below are authorised to:

1. witness the statutory declaration required as part of a Mutual Recognition Notice; and
2. verify the identity of an applicant for teacher registration with the TRBWA.

Please note, you must complete the statutory declaration for the Mutual Recognition Notice before an authorised witness. Other options are outlined on the Complete a statutory declaration for Mutual Recognition with the TRBWA information sheet.

Alternatively, you can complete a digital statutory declaration using myGov. You do not need a witness for a digital statutory declaration, but you will need a Digital Identity to verify your identity.

Verification of identity may be undertaken outside Australia, if it is undertaken by a person on the following list who holds an official, administrative connection to Australia, except for a notary public (however described).

For example, a doctor who is registered to practise medicine in Australia may verify the identity of an applicant for the purposes of teacher registration when they are overseas. A doctor who is registered to practise medicine in a country other than Australia, however, may not.
